Seventh Graders in Schools Now Getting Spanish Lessons

Instruction in Spanish is now being given in 30 Torrance elementary schools in virtually all seventh grade classes, according to A. N. Posner, assistant superintendent of instruction.

Posner said the seventh grade classes are receiving from 20 to 30 minutes of instruction three to five times each week. Presently, 45 teachers are taking courses in Spanish instruction. Another 35 teachers have started the basic course. Posner said the Torrance district will have a Spanish program which complies with the new state law with the next year, while more than three-fourths of the state's districts have done little or nothing about the program.

Iowans Set Picnic

The 64th Iowa Winter Picnic will be held at Recreation Park in Long Beach on March 28, according to C. Clair Dillavou, president of the Iowa Assn. of Southern California.

AT TREE PLANTING . . . Shown planting coral bean trees at Harbor Park in conjunction with Plant-a-Tree week sponsored by Los Angeles Beautiful are (from left) Kelley Wilkins, Miss Flowering Tree and mascot for the week; Mrs. Herbert F. Camp Fire Girls Plant 20 Trees As Salute to Plant-a-Tree Week

Twenty-two members of the Los Angeles Area Council of Camp Fire Girls helped Los Angeles Beautiful kick off Plant-a-Tree Week in grand style at 10 a.m. Saturday with 10 shovels and 20 coral bean trees at Harbor Regional Park in Wilmington.

In planting the seedlings the group added to the 1,000-plus Flame Tree Forest in the park that was begun by Camp Fire Girls in the Los Angeles council three years ago. Plant-a-Tree Week, the annual project of Los Angeles Beautiful, started Sunday and runs through next Saturday, Arbor Day.

Present at the function were Mrs. Herbert F. Sturdy, chairman of Plant-a-Tree Week, and Kelley Wilkins, 5, Miss Flowering Tree, mascot.

Tree Week and Arbor Day, scores of communities and service groups are scheduling tree-planting ceremonies throughout the L.A. area. Among them: the La Habra Heights Improvement Assn.'s Beautification Committee is distributing to its members several thousand small trees and shrubs for individual planting. The Friendship Chapter 57 of the American War Mothers will plant a tree at Exposition Park on Arbor Day. The Kiwanis Club of Woodland Hills will add to a grove of trees that it started some years ago in Woodland Hills Park.

THE HOME Garden Group is scheduled to plant some trees again this year on Arbor Day at MacArthur Park. The All City Employees Assn. will plant 50 trees on Arbor Day at Griffith Park.

In all, a variety of Arbor Day ceremonies are scheduled at more than 70 municipal recreation facilities in the Los Angeles area during the first two weeks of March.

Hanson Proposes Tax On Homes for Schools

Should builders of new homes in California be required to pay the costs of building schools to house anticipated students in newly-developed areas?

At least one member of the Torrance Board of Education believes they should. William Hanson, a former president of the local board, asked other members to consider asking the state to adopt new laws requiring a 4 per cent "classroom tax" on new homes.

Hanson argued the new homes—built by the developers—are the reason for building new schools. His proposal asked that a tax of 4 per cent be collected on each new home unless the developer could prove that no children of school age would live for in it for a minimum of 25 years.

The board tabled the matter without much discussion.

District Gets Gift From PTA

Members of the WALTERIA PTA have donated two eight-station listening posts to the Torrance schools. The donation was made "without any special requests or privileges in return," said Mrs. Joseph C. LaPorte.

In accepting the gift, the board asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to the WALTERIA PTA.
